跨国公司领导人青岛峰会

The Invitation Letter of 2021 Qingdao Multinationals Summit (Draft)

Honorable guests:

Greetings! In order to earnestly implement the spirit of the congratulatory letter from President Xi Jinping to the first Qingdao Multinationals Summit, comprehensively enhance the mutually beneficial cooperation between China and multinational companies in the new development stage, and build a new platform for multinational companies to participate in the new Development Pattern of the "14th Five-Year Plan", People's Government of Shandong Province and the Ministry of Commerce will jointly host the 2021 Qingdao Multinationals Summit on July 15th to 16th, 2021. We sincerely invite you to attend this event.

With the theme of "Multinational Companies and China", the summit will be consisting of a series of activities such as opening ceremony, theme salons, closed-door meetings, sub-forums, multinational company roadshows, city roadshows, exchanges and matchmaking meetings. Focusing on topics including multinational companies and the new development pattern of China, post-pandemic development of multinational companies, new investment trends of multinational companies and other issues such as RCEP, the China-EU Comprehensive Agreement on Investment (CAI), and the 14th Five-Year Plan we will organize in-depth discussions and pragmatical matching-making. During the summit, supporting activities such as "2021 New Growth Drivers · Qingdao Fair" will also be held to facilitate investment, trade, and negotiation and cooperation over technology.

We hope you could accept our invitation and join global business, political and academic leaders to chart the course for future cooperation.
